

It is with great pleasure on this 18th day of March 2018, that we, the Sunday School Class of Trinity Episcopal Church, aka Trinity Lime Rock would like to ask Helen to come forward.

Miss Helen [REDACTED], in the power vested in us (young people of Trinity Lime Rock) by The Reverend Heidi Truax, Rector of Trinity Lime Rock, Teaching Assistant Irish of Trinity Lime Rock, and the Holy Spirit, representing God, and along with the Congregation of Trinity Lime Rock, it is our great honor today to graduate you from Trinity Lime Rock's Sunday School Class. Thus, we hereby present you with your diploma in recognition of your graduation from Sunday School.

However, as we really don't want you NOT to be part of Sunday School we have been authorized to offer you the position of Junior Sunday School Instructor. We ask that you consider this offer and say YES!! # (hash tag: we won't take NO for an answer.) Please see fine print...you really sort of don't have a choice, again please refer to the fine print...

Please note that this position is not the same as being the Teaching Assistant as that job is reserved for the four-legged members of the parish...blah blah blah woof woof woof...

And while we know you will sometimes be in the city and not available to attend class we would kindly request that you try and not oversleep on the Sundays when you are here # (hash tag: hard to be a teenager). If we have to get out of bed on a Sunday morning you do too.

And, lastly (almost) the 18th Commandment, i.e. no texting in class or the back of the church, will still apply, no exceptions # (hash tag: please see the fine print etc., etc., etc.)

Congratulations Miss Helen [REDACTED]!!

With love and gratitude, The Sunday School Class of Trinity Lime Rock
