The Rector's Letter

December 15, 2019

Dear Parishioners,

"I'm gonna be an angel again this year," announced a young parishioner last Sunday! Thanks to the efforts of Theresa Kenny, our new pageant director, we will have a good cast and crew this year, and there is lots of new enthusiasm for the pageant this year.

The Advent season so far at Trinity Church has been lively all the way around! The Bazaar and Tree lighting were wonderful and well attended.

Rehearsals for the Christmas pageant are well underway, and Christine is planning glorious music for our Christmas celebrations.

We are thrilled to have a new Christmas light installer, Jeff Perotti, and he did a fine job putting up the lights this year. Susan Francisco took this amazing picture with the lights and the moon on the night we lit the tree and sang carols.

God has brought us together in community to celebrate our faith and celebrate the love God has for us in the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I look forward to seeing you all at our Christmas services. And please do consider contributing to the Christmas light fund so that we can afford to light up Lime Rock in the years to come.

Faithfully, Pastor Heidi Truax
